

Lithuanian Sea Museum implemented projects co-financed by the Lithuanian Council of Culture and Klaipeda Municipality in 2018

Project	Description of Project
My father used to be a fisherman	Development of an interactive exhibition about traditional fishing in the ethnographic fisherman's farmstead.
From the Rivulet to the Ocean	Development of interactive zones in the Aquarium exhibition for deeper understanding of the ocean ecosystems.
A Stroll with the President Antanas Smetona	A performance highlighting glorious history of the Lithuanian Navy.
WWW.SOS.COME	Contemporary art exhibition in the Lithuanian Sea Museum evoking contemplations of parallel worlds of humans and the nature.
Dangė Flotilla	Historical ships' parade during the Sea Festival in Klaipeda, presenting navigation traditions and heritage with numerous edutainment activities to the public.
What a Wonderful World of Museums	School project engaging students into deeper complex study of the history of Klaipeda with the sessions arranged in different museums of the city.
Engaged with the Sea II	Art platform-installation, arranged in a sea trade container, focusing on the ocean conservation issues.
Discover Your Sea Here	The exhibition in Klaipeda town's square created together with the citizens, presenting their attitudes about the importance of the Baltic Sea, impressions from the Lithuanian Sea Museum.
At the Roots of the Lithuanian Fleet. People and Ships	A book about initiators and developers of the Lithuanian fleet (begin. XX c.) aiming at dissemination of national maritime historical heritage.
Protecting the National Interests: Lithuanian Navy in the Course of History	International conference dedicated to the history and development of the National Navy in relation to the Centennial of Restoration of the State of Lithuania.
Warship Prezidentas Smetona: about the ship and her crew	Publishing of a book presenting the first Lithuanian Naval ship, her history and the people who served on the board.

A Complaint is a Gift	Qualifications of the museum's staff developing project aiming at providing better services for the visitors.
Preventive Restoration and Conservation of Museum Valuables	Conservation of museum valuables preserved in the Museum's Collection of Art.
Acquisition of Museum Valuables Reflecting the History of Lithuania as a Maritime State	The project aims at collecting and promoting museum valuables, and presenting them to the wide public in a digital format.