

Lithuanian Sea Museum projects co-financed by the Lithuanian Council of Culture in 2021

Yellow. Green. Red. BLUE!

National maritime heritage and culture disseminating project.

---

Strolling around the Blue Planet

20 edutaining videos created together with a popular TV character Gustav aiming to raise ocean literacy of the community, calling to save the Blue Planet.

---

From Collections of the Museum

Ship models Catalogue presenting the collection of ship models of the Lithuanian Sea Museum.

---

When the winds, sails and people start talking

3 museum's books will be published in audiobook format. The project aims at spreading marine culture knowledge by modern means, relevant and convenient to contemporary people of the XXI century.

---

Acquisition of Museum Valuables

Collection of XVIII-XX c. marine cold weapons: swords and draggers, used in the navies of different countries.

Art-works by contemporary Lithuanian sculptor Romualdas Inčirauskas interpreting and reflecting the Lithuanian Sea Museum.

Lithuanian Sea Museum projects co-financed by Klaipeda Municipality in 2021

Dangė Flotilla

10th Anniversary historical ships' parade, presenting sailing traditions, tangible and intangible cultural heritage.

---

Yellow. Green. Red. BLUE!

National maritime heritage and culture disseminating project.

---

Care for life

Educative temporary installation in the exhibition of the Lithuanian Sea Museum, presenting ecological situation and the future of the Ocean.

---

Hear Feel Discover the Sea inside Yourself

Edu-provocation in the streets of Klaipeda city dedicated to the International Ocean Day and the Klaipeda European Youth Capital 2021 programme